Non-GAAP Financial Measures

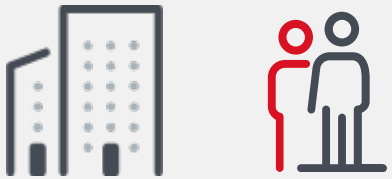

We use certain non-GAAP financial measures as additional measures to enhance the understanding of our financial results. This presentation includes the following non-GAAP financial measures: adjusted net revenues, adjusted variable expenses, adjusted fixed expenses, adjusted income before income taxes and adjusted diluted earnings per share ("EPS"). We believe that these non-GAAP financial measures are important measures of our financial performance because they exclude certain items that may not be indicative of our core operating results and business outlook. We believe these non-GAAP financial measures are useful to investors and analysts in evaluating the operating performance of the business. These non-GAAP financial measures should be considered in addition to, rather than as a substitute for, measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP"). A reconciliation of these non-GAAP measures to the most comparable financial measure presented in accordance with GAAP is included at the end of this presentation.

Any forward-looking statements are based upon information available to the Company on the date of this presentation. The Company does not undertake to publicly update or revise its forward-looking statements even if experience or future changes make it clear that any statements expressed or implied therein will not be realized. IBKR Growth Continues[1]

More accounts and client equity on our highly automated platform mean higher activity and client engagement.

Higher overall activity translates to higher revenues.

These help drive our industry-leading profit margins[2].

Net Interest Margin

Interest Rate Sensitivity Impact

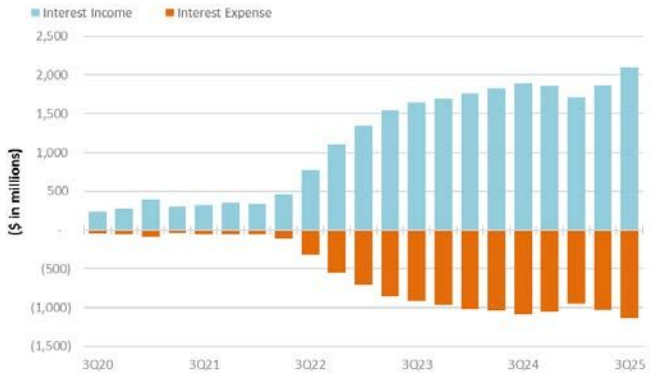

Interest rate moves have a moderate impact on our net interest income. This impact can be offset by…

…balance sheet growth, as net interest-earning assets rise due to healthy account growth, and…

…by lower interest expense, as the rate paid to our clients declines (we pay interest based on benchmark rates).

- Based on balances and rates at 09/30/2025, a full 1% decrease in all benchmark rates would decrease our annual net interest income by $417 million
- This assumes no balance sheet growth

* Adjusted 9M 2025 Net Interest Income of $2,597 million when annualized is $3,463 million

IBKR CLASSIFICATION: CONFIDENTIAL

Net Interest Margin

Consistent Securities Lending Revenue

A Securities Lending Transaction has 3 parts:

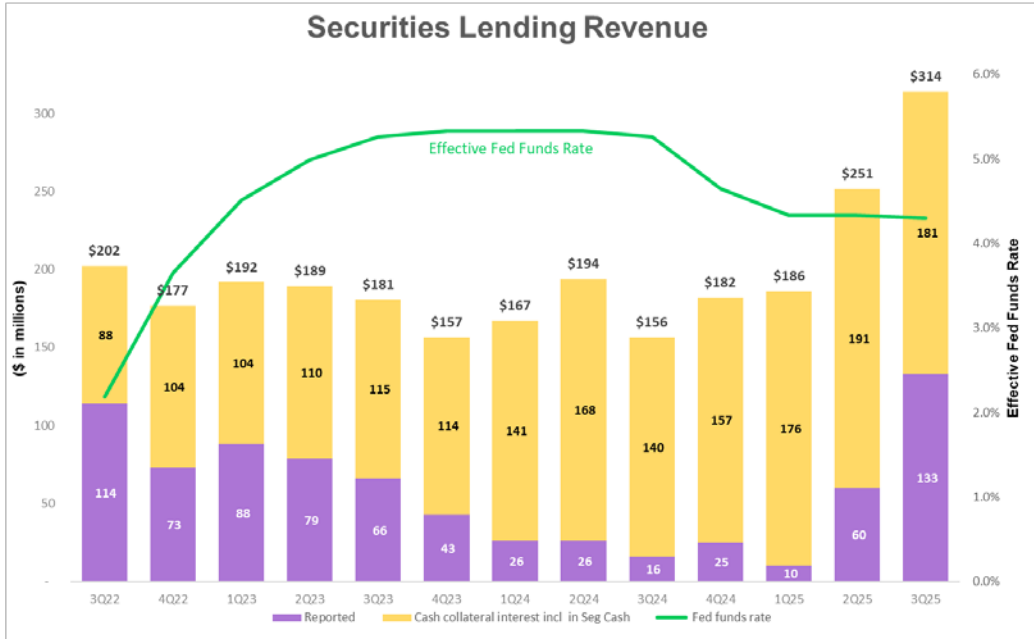

- Fee we earn to lend the security
- Interest we pay on the cash collateral received for the security
- Interest we earn on reinvesting the cash collateral received

\+ −

Reported in ‘Securities lending, net’

Reported in ‘Segregated cash & securities, net’

- Higher interest rates mean interest earned on reinvesting the cash collateral received (reported in “Interest Earned on Segregated Cash”) rises.
- What is reported as “Securities Lending, Net” appears to decline, but overall, total revenue related to securities lending remains steady over time.

Equity Capital

Solid Foundation for Growth and Resilience

We use capital to:

Support Margin Loans	• Customer credits can be used to fund the bulk of our margin loans, then financing and our own capital is utilized for the rest
Guarantee Trades	• Deposits to guarantee customer trades are required by securities clearing houses (like DTCC in the US) around the world • Can be increased immediately during unusually high-volume trading periods
Observe Regulatory Requirements For Reserve Buffer	• Conservative capital management satisfies securities regulations for maintaining liquid asset buffers and to safeguard client money
Capture Growth Opportunities	• Enter new countries • Introduce new products • Support expansion of client base • M&A
Return Capital to Shareholders	• Consistent quarterly dividend payments while maintaining stable earnings
