News Release

TransUnion Announces Second Quarter 2023 Results

- Delivered strong financial performance in the second quarter
- Grew revenues by 2 percent, or 3 percent constant currency, driven by strength in International
- Prepaid $75 million in debt in the quarter and intend to make additional prepayments throughout the year
- Maintaining 2023 full-year guidance

CHICAGO, July 25, 2023 - TransUnion (NYSE: TRU) (the "Company") today announced financial results for the quarter ended June 30, 2023.

Second Quarter 2023 Results

Revenue:

- Total revenue for the quarter was $968 million, an increase of 2 percent (3 percent on a constant currency basis), compared with the second quarter of 2022.

Earnings:

- Net income attributable to TransUnion was $54 million for the quarter, compared with $96 million for the second quarter of 2022. Diluted earnings per share was $0.28, compared with $0.49 in the second quarter of 2022. Net income attributable to TransUnion margin was 5.6 percent, compared with 10.1 percent in the second quarter of 2022.
- Adjusted Net Income was $166 million for the quarter, compared with $190 million for the second quarter of 2022. Adjusted Diluted Earnings per Share was $0.86, compared with $0.98 in the second quarter of 2022.
- Adjusted EBITDA was $339 million for the quarter, a decrease of 3 percent (2 percent on a constant currency basis), compared with the second quarter of 2022. Adjusted EBITDA margin was 35.0 percent, compared with 36.9 percent in the second quarter of 2022.

"TransUnion delivered another solid quarter," said Chris Cartwright, President and CEO. "We continue to execute against our growth strategy, benefiting from our innovative and increasingly diversified solution suite, accelerating growth from Neustar and particularly strong results in our International business led by India, Asia Pacific and Canada."

"In the quarter, we announced a strategic partnership and minority investment in Truework to deliver the next generation of income and employment solutions to our customers. Additionally, we prepaid $75 million in debt, bringing our year-to-date total to $150 million, underlying our commitment to further deleveraging."

"As we look to the second half of the year, we expect to deliver improving results with accelerating revenue and earnings growth. We are maintaining our 2023 full-year guidance to account for continued market uncertainty."

Second Quarter 2023 Segment Results

U.S. Markets:

U.S. Markets revenue was $642 million, an increase of 1 percent compared with the second quarter of 2022.

- Financial Services revenue was $332 million, an increase of less than 1 percent compared with the second quarter of 2022.
- Emerging Verticals revenue was $310 million, an increase of 3 percent compared with the second quarter of 2022.

Adjusted EBITDA was $222 million, a decrease of 5 percent compared with the second quarter of 2022.

International:

International revenue was $202 million, an increase of 8 percent (13 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.

- Canada revenue was $35 million, an increase of 6 percent (11 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.
- Latin America revenue was $30 million, an increase of 1 percent (5 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.
- United Kingdom revenue was $49 million, a decrease of 1 percent (1 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.
- Africa revenue was $14 million, a decrease of 7 percent (an increase of 10 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.
- India revenue was $51 million, an increase of 27 percent (35 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.
- Asia Pacific revenue was $22 million, an increase of 18 percent (20 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.

Adjusted EBITDA was $85 million, an increase of 5 percent (10 percent on a constant currency basis) compared with the second quarter of 2022.

Consumer Interactive:

Consumer Interactive revenue was $144 million, a decrease of 2 percent compared with the second quarter of 2022.

Adjusted EBITDA was $68 million, a decrease of less than 1 percent compared with the second quarter of 2022.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash and cash equivalents were $442 million at June 30, 2023 and $585 million at December 31, 2022, of which $277 million and $303 million was held outside the United States in each respective period. For the six months ended June 30, 2022, we prepaid $150 million of debt, funded from our cash-on-hand.

For the six months ended June 30, 2023, cash provided by operating activities of continuing operations was $293 million, compared with cash used in operating activities of continuing operations of $115 million in 2022. The increase in cash provided by continuing operations was due primarily to prior year taxes paid on the gain from the divestiture of our Healthcare business and lower bonus and commission payments in the current year, partially offset by an increase in interest expense. For the six months ended June 30, 2023, cash used in investing activities of continuing operations was $186 million, compared with $676 million in 2022. The decrease in cash used in investing activities of continuing operations was due primarily to the acquisition of Argus in the prior year. Capital expenditures were $144 million, compared with $121 million in 2022. For the six months ended June 30, 2023, cash used in financing activities of continuing operations was $254 million, compared with $522 million in 2022. The decrease in cash used in financing activities of continuing operations was due primarily to a decrease in debt prepayments and cash used to pay employee taxes on restricted stock units.

Revision of Previously Issued Financial Statements

During the second quarter of 2023, the Company identified an error in the classification of employee costs related to certain of our recent acquisitions between cost of services and selling, general and administrative in the Consolidated Statements of Income impacting the 2022 quarterly and annual financial statements, and quarterly financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2023. The error resulted in the understatement of cost of services and the overstatement of selling, general and administrative in equal and offsetting amounts resulting in no impact to total operating expenses, operating income or net income. The Company evaluated the error and determined that the related impact was not material to the Consolidated Statements of Income for any prior period. The Company has revised the previously issued Consolidated Statements of Income for the three and six months ended 2022 to correct for such error and these revisions are reflected in the Consolidated Statements of Income. A summary of the revision on the impacted financial statement line items to the Company's previously issued Consolidated Statements of Income is shown on Schedule 8, "Revision of Previously Issued Financial Statements."

Third Quarter and Full Year 2023 Outlook

Our guidance is based on a number of assumptions that are subject to change, many of which are outside of the control of the Company, including general macroeconomic conditions, interest rates and inflation. There are numerous evolving factors that we may not be able to accurately predict. There can be no assurance that the Company will achieve the results expressed by this guidance.

Additional revenue growth assumptions:

1. The impact of changing foreign currency exchange rates is expected to be insignificant for Q3 2023 and approximately 1 point of headwind for FY 2023.
    a. The impact of recent acquisitions is expected to have no impact for Q3 2023 and less than 1 point of benefit for FY 2023.
    b. The impact of mortgage is expected to be approximately 1.5 points of benefit for Q3 2023 and 1 point benefit for FY 2023. These impacts are calculated by removing the U.S. mortgage revenue from both the current year and prior year periods.
2. Constant currency growth rates assume foreign currency exchange rates are consistent between years. This allows financial results to be evaluated without the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates.
3. Organic constant currency growth rates are constant currency growth excluding inorganic growth. Inorganic growth represents growth attributable to the first twelve months of activity for recent business acquisitions.
4. Additional Adjusted EBITDA assumptions:
    a. The impact of changing foreign currency exchange rates is expected to have an insignificant impact for Q3 2023 and approximately 1 point of headwind for FY 2023.
5. For a reconciliation of the above non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures, refer to Schedule 7 of this Earnings Release.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This earnings release presents constant currency growth rates assuming foreign currency exchange rates are consistent between years. This allows financial results to be evaluated without the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates. This earnings release also presents organic constant currency growth rates, which assumes consistent foreign currency exchange rates between years and also eliminates the impact of our recent acquisitions. This allows financial results to be evaluated without the impact of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and the impacts of recent acquisitions.

This earnings release also presents Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA Margin, Adjusted Net Income, Adjusted Diluted Earnings per Share, Adjusted Provision for Income Taxes, Adjusted Effective Tax Rate and Leverage Ratio for all periods presented. These are important financial measures for the Company but are not financial measures as defined by GAAP. These financial measures should be reviewed in conjunction with the relevant GAAP financial measures and are not presented as alternative measures of GAAP. Other companies in our industry may define or calculate these measures differently than we do, limiting their usefulness as comparative measures. Because of these limitations, these non-GAAP financial measures should not be considered in isolation or as substitutes for performance measures calculated in accordance with GAAP, including operating income, operating margin, effective tax rate, net income (loss) attributable to the Company, diluted earnings per share or cash provided by operating activities. Reconciliations of these non-GAAP financial measures to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measures are presented in the attached Schedules.

We present Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA, Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA Margin, Adjusted Net Income, Adjusted Diluted Earnings per Share, Adjusted Provision for Income Taxes and Adjusted Effective Tax Rate as supplemental measures of our operating performance because these measures eliminate the impact of certain items that we do not consider indicative of our cash operations and ongoing operating performance. These are measures frequently used by securities analysts, investors and other interested parties in their evaluation of the operating performance of companies similar to ours.

Our board of directors and executive management team use Adjusted EBITDA as an incentive compensation measure for most eligible employees and Adjusted Diluted Earnings per Share as an incentive compensation measure for certain of our senior executives.

Under the credit agreement governing our Senior Secured Credit Facility, our ability to engage in activities such as incurring additional indebtedness, making investments and paying dividends is tied to our Leverage Ratio, which is partially based on Adjusted EBITDA. Investors also use our Leverage Ratio to assess our ability to service our debt and make other capital allocation decisions.

We define Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA as net income (loss) attributable to TransUnion, less discontinued operations, net of tax, plus net interest expense, plus (less) provision (benefit) for income taxes, plus depreciation and amortization, plus stock-based compensation, plus mergers, acquisitions, divestitures and business optimization-related expenses, plus certain accelerated technology investment expenses to migrate to the cloud, plus (less) certain other expenses (income). We define Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA Margin as Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA divided by total revenue as reported.

We define Adjusted Net Income as net income (loss) attributable to TransUnion, less discontinued operations, net of tax, plus stock-based compensation, plus mergers, acquisitions, divestitures and business optimization-related expenses, plus certain accelerated technology investment expenses, plus (less) certain other expenses (income), plus amortization of certain intangible assets, plus or minus the total adjustment for income taxes included in our Adjusted Provision for Income Taxes. We define Adjusted Diluted Earnings per Share as Adjusted Net Income divided by the weighted-average diluted shares outstanding. We define Adjusted Provision for Income Taxes as our provision for income taxes, plus or minus the tax impact on the adjustment included in Adjusted Net Income, plus or minus the impact of excess tax benefits for share compensation, plus or minus other items that relate to prior periods such as valuation allowance changes, deferred tax rate and return to provision adjustments, and other unusual items that are included in our provision for income taxes. We define Adjusted Effective Tax Rate as Adjusted Provision for Income Taxes divided by Adjusted Net Income.

We define Leverage Ratio as net debt divided by Consolidated Adjusted EBITDA for the most recent twelve-month period, including twelve months of Adjusted EBITDA from significant acquisitions. Net debt is defined as total debt less cash and cash equivalents as reported on the balance sheet as of the end of the period.

Forward-Looking Statements

This earnings release contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These statements are based on the current beliefs and expectations of TransUnion's management and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties. Actual results may differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. Any statements made in this earnings release that are not statements of historical fact, including statements about our beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include information concerning possible or assumed future results of operations, including our guidance and descriptions of our business plans and strategies. These statements often include words such as "anticipate," "expect," "guidance," "suggest," "plan," "believe," "intend," "estimate," "target," "project," "should," "could," "would," "may," "will," "forecast," "outlook," "potential," "continues," "seeks," "predicts," or the negatives of these words and other similar expressions.

Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements, or that could materially affect our financial results or such forward-looking statements include:

- macroeconomic effects and changes in market conditions, including the impact of inflation, risk of recession and industry trends and adverse developments in the debt, consumer credit and financial services markets;
- our ability to provide competitive services and prices;
- our ability to retain or renew existing agreements with large or long-term customers;
- our ability to maintain the security and integrity of our data;
- our ability to deliver services timely without interruption;
- our ability to maintain our access to data sources;
- government regulation and changes in the regulatory environment;
- litigation or regulatory proceedings;
- our ability to effectively manage our costs;
- economic and political stability in the United States and international markets where we operate;
- our ability to effectively develop and maintain strategic alliances and joint ventures;
- our ability to timely develop new services and the market's willingness to adopt our new services;
- our ability to manage and expand our operations and keep up with rapidly changing technologies;
- our ability to acquire businesses, successfully secure financing for our acquisitions, timely consummate our acquisitions, successfully integrate the operations of our acquisitions, control the costs of integrating our acquisitions and realize the intended benefits of such acquisitions;

- our ability to protect and enforce our intellectual property, trade secrets and other forms of unpatented intellectual property;
- our ability to defend our intellectual property from infringement claims by third parties;
- the war in Ukraine and escalating geopolitical tensions as a result of Russia's invasion of Ukraine;
- the ability of our outside service providers and key vendors to fulfill their obligations to us;
- further consolidation in our end-customer markets;
- the increased availability of free or inexpensive consumer information;
- losses against which we do not insure;
- our ability to make timely payments of principal and interest on our indebtedness;
- our ability to satisfy covenants in the agreements governing our indebtedness;
- our ability to maintain our liquidity;
- share repurchase plans; and
- our reliance on key management personnel.

There may be other factors, many of which are beyond our control, that may cause our actual results to differ materially from the forward-looking statements, including factors disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022, and any subsequent Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q or Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. You should evaluate all forward-looking statements made in this report in the context of these risks and uncertainties.

The forward-looking statements contained in this earnings release speak only as of the date of this earnings release. We undertake no obligation to publicly release the result of any revisions to these forward-looking statements to reflect the impact of events or circumstances that may arise after the date of this earnings release.

TRANSUNION AND SUBSIDIARIES
Revision of Previously Issued Financial Statements (Unaudited)
(in millions, except per share data)

The Company revised prior period Consolidated Statements of Income to correct the classification of costs related to certain of our recent acquisitions between cost of services and selling, general and administrative, which resulted in the understatement of cost of services and the overstatement of selling, general and administrative in equal and offsetting amounts resulting in no impact to total operating expenses, operating income, or net income. See the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended June 30, 2023, Part I, Item 1, "Notes to Unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements," Note 1, "Significant Accounting and Reporting Policies," and Note 19, "Revision of Previously Issued Financial Statements," for further information about this matter. A summary of the revision on the impacted financial statement line items to the Company's previously issued Consolidated Statements of Income previously filed in the Annual Report on Form 10-K and in unaudited Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q is as follows:
